FOOTBALL GAMES IN UTAH TODAY

Salt Lake, Ogden and Logan Will See Strongest Teams in State in Action.

- Football Games in Utah Today.
- Salt Lake High vs. Granite High, at Cummings field, at 2 o'clock.
- U. of U. vs. Ogden High, at Ogden.
- All Hallows vs. Aggies, at Logan.

Utah will be well represented with football games today. The local football fans will be accommodated with a game at Cummings field between the Salt Lake High and the Granite High. This will be the first game of the season which will have any bearing on the state high school championship and will be interesting, as a close score is looked for. The Granite High broke into the great college sport for the first time last year and made a good impression at that time. This season all of the old men are back in line and the boys hope to make it more than interesting for the Granite High.

The Salt Lake High, realizing they are up against a hard combination today, have worked like Trojans all week in order to make a score against the country school. If hard work and plenty of it can put a team in shape, then the Salt Lake High will be strong this afternoon, as the boys have certainly put in their best ticks since their defeat at the hands of the Aggies last week.

Ogden fans can have a chance to see their own high school champions go up against the state champions and the team which made the Colorado schools sit up and take notice last year. Ogden is counted upon as being fully as strong as it was last year, while there is a feeling abroad that the university has a much weaker lineup. For this reason the Junction City boys can be expected to make a strong fight to hold down the score and also to score against Maddock's bunch.

Logan will see the team which its fans hope will win the state championship play the All Hallows today. The Salt Lake college's only hope is to keep the Aggies from making as big a score as they did against the Salt Lake High a week ago. Walker's bunch has had the advantage of another week's training and it is expected will mow down the local boys for score after score.

Taking the three games into consideration it will give a line on how the high schools of the state stand and also on the U. and A. C. All of the teams are pretty well lined up now for the season, but of course they will all be much stronger as team work is perfected.

O'MARA WINS MARATHON.

Brookton, Mass., Oct. 2.—J. W. O'Mara of North Cambridge today won the Marathon race from Boston to this city, distance 22 miles. Time, 2:31:20.

E. G. Ryder of Jamaica Plains, Mass., was second; Charles Henry of Lynn, Mass., third, and Samuel A. Miller of Yonkers, N. Y., fourth.

O'Mara was in such bad shape when he reached the track that he stopped in front of the judges' stand fifteen feet from the finish and nearly collapsed. Urged by shouting spectators, O'Mara gathered himself together and finished.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Pittsburg this morning is in the lead in the National league pennant race, the two victories won by that club in St. Louis breaking the tie with Chicago and increasing Pittsburg's percentage mark by five points. New York and Chicago both won their games, but, playing single games, each gained but two points, New York dropping to second and Chicago to third place. The standing as it has been figured is left unaffected by President Pulliam's decision of last night, declaring the New York-Chicago game of Sept. 23 a tie and finding that Chicago has no claim to a forfeited game on the day following.

President Pulliam rules that the Chicago club had no claim in equity for a forfeited game on Sept. 24, when Chicago holds that the game of the day previous should have been played off.

The whole dispute comes down to a question of whether the umpire should be upheld or not. Mr. Pulliam declares, in conclusion, he says:

"Much as I deplore the unfortunate ending of a brilliantly played game, as well as the subsequent controversies, I have no alternative than to be guided by the law. I believe in sportsmanship and will go as far as any one to achieve its ends, but would it be good sportsmanship on my part as president of the league to repudiate my umpires, simply to condone the undisputed blunder of a player?"

The playing rules say that the decision of the umpire on a question of fact is final. This whole controversy hinges on a simple question: Was Mike forced out at second base? Umpire in Chief O'Day says he was. O'Day is no novice, and there is no reason to doubt his accuracy in his decision.

"I rule that this game ended in a tie and that for reasons stated above the Chicago club has no claim in equity for a forfeited game."

The standing, Friday's games included, follows:

Team	Won	Lost	Pct.
Pittsburg	97	55	.638
New York	95	54	.637

Y. M. C. A. TRYOUTS TONIGHT

Candidates for All Association Athletic Teams Requested to Be on Hand.

Candidates for the "Y" basketball team will receive their first real workout during the open house reception tonight, when every man on the list will be fully tested.

Hofman, the big center who did such excellent work last year, will be out for his first try, and with the other members of last season's team, Metcalf, Hammond, Holsinger and Blomquist, will put on a good exhibition match with the new men, of whom there is a better aggregation than any year in the history of the game at that association.

This year's captain will be selected by the members of the 1907-08 team during the open house reception, and will be developing and placing the men will begin.

The association teams will be managed by Physical Director Hoffer, and he and E. S. Brown, formerly in charge of physical work at the "Y," will co-operate in coaching. With the material at hand, and increased enthusiasm, it looks as though the association teams will put up a pretty fight in defense of their title to the championship.

Preliminary steps have been taken toward arranging a strong schedule of games with the various organizations of the state.

The entire physical department will be thrown open for inspection, and while the basketball team is being developed, the wrestling room, where Instructor M. R. Yokel will have a number of men on for some fast bouts.
